A Most Valuable Agent.

The glycerine employed in Dr. Pierce's medicines greatly enhances the medicinal properties which it extracts from native medicinal roots and holds in solution much better than alcohol would. It also possesses medicinal properties of its own, being a valuable demulcent, nutritive, antiseptic and antiferment. It adds greatly to the efficacy of the Black Cherry-bark, Bloodroot, Golden Seal root, Stone root and Queen's root, contained in "Golden Medical Discovery" in subduing chronic, or lingering coughs, bronchial, throat and lung affections, for all of which these agents are recommended by standard medical authorities.

In all cases where there is a wasting away of flesh, loss of appetite, with weak stomach, as in the early stages of consumption, there can be no doubt that glycerine acts as a valuable nutritive and aids the Golden Seal root, Stone root, Queen's root and Black Cherrybark in promoting digestion and building up the flesh and strength, controlling the cough and bringing about a healthy condition of the whole system. Of course it must not be expected to work miracles. It will not cure consumption except in its earlier stages. It will cure very severe, obstinate, hang-on, chronic coughs, bronchial and laryngeal troubles, and chronic sore throat with hoarseness. In acute coughs it is not so effective. It is in the lingering hang-on coughs, or those of long standing, even when accompanied by bleeding from lungs, that it has performed its most marvelous cures.

"In dyspepsia it serves an excellent purpose. Holding a fixed quantity of the peroxide of hydrogen in solution, it is one of the best manufactured products of the present time in its action upon enfeebled, disordered stomachs, especially if there is ulceration or catarrhal gastritis (catarrhal inflammation of stomach), it is a most efficient preparation. Glycerine will relieve many cases of pyrosis (heartburn) and excessive gastric (stomach) acidity."

"Golden Medical Discovery" enriches and purifies the blood curing biotches, pimples, eruptions, scrofulous swellings and old sores, or ulcers.

Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., for free booklet telling all about the native medicinal roots composing this wonderful medicine. There is no alcohol in it.

A Reliable Remedy for CATARRH

It cleanses, soothes, heals and protects the diseased membrane resulting from Catarrh and drives away a Cold in the Head quickly. Restores the Senses of Taste and Smell. Full size 50 cts., at Druggists or by mail. In liquid form, 75 cents. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren Street, New York.

HAY FEVER

I have found a tried and tested cure for Rheumatism! Not a remedy that will straighten the distorted limbs of chronic cripples, nor turn bony growths back to flesh again. That is impossible. But I can now surely kill the pains and pangs of this deplorable disease.

In Germany—with a Chemist in the City of Darmstadt—I found the last ingredient with which Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Remedy was made a perfected, dependable prescription. Without that last ingredient, I successfully treated many, many cases of Rheumatism; but now, at last, it uniformly cures all curable cases of this heretofore much dreaded disease. Those sand-like granular wastes, found in Rheumatic Blood, seem to dissolve and pass away under the action of this remedy as freely as does sugar when added to pure water. And then, when dissolved, these poisonous wastes freely pass from the system, and the cause of Rheumatism is gone forever. There is now no real need—no actual excuse to suffer longer without help. We sell, and in confidence recommend

An attempt to poison the family of William H. Westall, of Asheville, N. C., was made yesterday by Julia Fishour, a sixteen-year-old girl, adopted by the Westall family. The girl admitted that she tried to kill Mrs. William Westall by putting poison in her coffee. Her act was prompted by a spirit of revenge, she said, because a few days ago Mrs. Westall had reproved her and wounded the feelings.

A warrant was issued, charging her with an attempt to commit murder. She was arrested yesterday.

The girl is in short dresses and is a pupil in the city schools. She was adopted when quite young by the Westall family, with whom she had made her home. Amid sobs, she made her confession.

"I found a bottle marked poison," she said, "and when no one was looking I poured it into the coffee and then destroyed the bottle."

When Mrs. Westall attempted to drink her coffee her throat was burned and she became deathly sick. A physician was hastily summoned. The other members of the family escaped, as Mrs. Westall was the first to drink the coffee.

It was ascertained that the poison used by the girl was a disinfectant for scarlet fever and contained a large amount of carbolic acid.

SHOT PHYSICIAN AND HERSELF.

Dr. J. A. Attridge, aged thirty-eight, and his patient, Mrs. John B. Griffith, aged thirty-five were taken to hospitals in Detroit, Mich., last night from Mrs. Griffith's room in the Roycourt apartments, both shot through the head and in a critical condition. Mrs. Griffith had been in Harper Hospital several weeks receiving treatment and had just been removed to her rooms, under the direction of Dr. Attridge, when the shooting occurred.

Mrs. Griffith's sister Miss Stella Wade of Holly, Mich., had complied with her request to leave the room, when she heard a shot and saw Dr. Attridge rushing from the bedroom after her. He fell to the floor in the dining room. As Miss Wade ran toward the street to call for help she heard a second shot. Neighbors found Mrs. Griffith lying in bed with a revolver near her and her brain pierced by a bullet.

The woman's husband said he and his wife had trouble because of Dr. Attridge's attentions to Mrs. Griffith, but it is said the trouble had effected a reconciliation while Mrs. Griffith was in the hospital.

How Diptheria is Contracted.

One often hears the expression, "My child can't be a severe cold which developed into diphtheria," when the truth was that the cold had simply left the little one particularly susceptible to the wandering diphtheria germ. When Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given it quickly cures the cold and lessens the danger of diphtheria or any other germ disease being contracted. For sale by Richard Gibson and W. F. Creighton & Co.

PASSENGERS RESCUED.

A dispatch from Halifax, N. S., says the government steamer Lady Laurier came up from Ironbound Island last night with 500 of the passengers of the wrecked steamer Mount Temple. They spent Monday night wherever they could find shelter or in the open on the ground of Ironbound Island wrapped in blankets as their only protection from the weather, and with huge fires to keep them from freezing.

The women and children were able to find refuge in a large fish house, in the lighthouse, and in the two dwelling houses of the island. The children were the greatest sufferers, being poorly dressed and badly shod.

The steamship Mount Temple lies as she did when she first stranded, all her holds but one full of water, and the engine room flooded. If the wind shifts there will be but slight chance of getting her off, and the best informed shipping people think she will become a total loss.

A tickling cough, from any cause, is quickly stopped by Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. And it is so thoroughly harmless and safe, that Dr. Shoop tells mothers everywhere to give it without hesitation even to very young babies. The wholesome green leaves and tender stems of a lung-healing mountainous shrub, furnish the curative properties to Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. It calms the cough, and heals the sore and sensitive bronchial membranes. No opium, no chloroform, nothing harsh used to injure or suppress. Simply a resinous plant extract, that helps to heal aching lungs. The Spaniards call this shrub which the Doctor uses, "The Sacred Herb." Demand Dr. Shoop's. Take no other. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

RETURNING EMIGRANTS

There is some alarm lest the hordes of returning emigrants without money will critically glut the already overcrowded labor market in Germany.

It has been unofficially suggested that the government imitate the American plan of excluding undesirables. Labor organizations are greatly troubled over the prospect of an influx at a time when the question of employment is acutely difficult. Commodities, even the barest necessities, are rising to almost famine prices.

It was stated at a meeting of the municipal council of Schoenenberg, a suburb of Berlin, last night, that there were 30,000 skilled and 35,000 unskilled workmen idle in Berlin alone. A proportionate number are idle in other industrial centers and in the farming region. The trade unions have already been compelled to cut in half their doles to the unemployed.

Similar conditions prevail in Austria, to which country more American emigrants have returned in a fortnight than departed. The prices of food are rising, and troubles is feared.

Here's Good Advice.

O. S. Woolever, one of the best known merchants of Le Raysville, N. Y., says: "If you are ever troubled with piles, apply Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It cured me of them for good 20 years ago." Guaranteed for sores, wounds, burns or abrasions, 25c at all drug store.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

WHILE there are few open comments hereabouts upon the verdict of the jury in the case of Mrs. Bradley charged with the murder of ex-Senator Brown in Washington, evidently the decision is affirmed by many who sympathise with the woman in her experience with her victim, realizing that she, too, was the victim of a man in whom she blindly confided. There is, however, another class who are inclined to think that human life is being rendered cheap in this day. The number of murders are increasing daily, while but a small percentage of those who commit such crimes pay the full penalty. Foreman Feeney of the jury which considered the findings in Mrs. Bradley's case said among other things yesterday:

It was never the intention of any member of the jury, after the harrowing story of Mrs. Bradley's life, as told by herself on the witness stand, to bring in a verdict of murder in the first degree, as it would take 12 men with hearts of stone to render such a verdict, and the jury of which I had the honor of being a member was not composed of that kind of metal—they were men of deep sympathies and could appreciate the trials and sufferings that Mrs. Bradley went through. We all admit that she grievously erred in yielding to Senator Brown; she was a woman, dominated and controlled by a stronger mind than her own; she believed implicity in his promises, no matter what other people told her—especially his promise to make her his wife, which she so much desired. The verdict rendered by the jury, we hope, will be a lesson, not only to young married women, but also to married men, who by promises of love and devotion entice from their homes and children another man's wife, and then cast her aside with no regard for another man's wife, home and the sanctity of the social life of the fireside.

The above should be an admonition to all who may be tempted to take wrong paths in life.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT in his message to Congress yesterday in commenting upon the expenditure of money for campaign purposes suggested what he supposes would be a substantial improvement in the system of conducting a campaign. He said: "The need for collecting large campaign funds would vanish if Congress provided an appropriation for the proper and legitimate expenses of each of the great national parties, an appropriation ample enough to meet the necessity for thorough organization and machinery, which requires a large expenditure of money. Then the stipulation should be made that no party receiving campaign funds from the Treasury should accept more than a fixed amount from any individual subscriber or donor; and the necessary publicity receipts and expenditures could without difficulty be provided." There is no reason to suppose that this plan would in the end prove satisfactory. There are many ways by which campaign funds could be augmented, while those who violate the law could fine loopholes from which to emerge.

PEOPLE of Southold, L. I., announce that they will not suffer any affinities or "such trash" to exist in their village longer than it takes the said affinities, after being discovered, to pack their clothes and consult a time-table. A man who had given offense found the following notification at his place of business: "Chase that woman out, 23—skidoo. 48 hours for you to leave Southold. Tar and feathers for yours."

WITH John Sharp Williams, of Mississippi, for leader of the minority of the House, and with Senator Culberson, of Texas, leader in the Senate, the democrats in this Congress will have such wise and conservative guidance as should save them from any grave mistakes on the eve of a presidential election.

AROUND the Capitol in Washington it is said that the present will be a do-nothing session of Congress. Well, most people prefer no legislation rather than pernicious legislation, so if nothing is to be done the shorter the session the better.

Washington, Dec. 4.

Congressman Carlin yesterday introduced a bill in the House for the appropriation of $5,000,000 for the construction of a memorial bridge from Washington to the Virginia side of the Potomac. The bill provides for an ordinance appropriating $500,000, for the drawing of plans and for the commencement of the work of construction at once. Though the exertions of Senator Daniel and Congressman Carlin Capt. T. J. Kirkpatrick, surgeon U. S. A., who while serving in the Philippines some time ago was reduced five numbers for some minor breach of discipline has been restored to his form rank and will at once be promoted to a major. This will be gratifying to Dr. Kirkpatrick and his many friends in Alexandria.

The fight in the House for currency reform started today through the committee on banking and currency meeting and directing Chairman Fowler to appoint a committee for consideration. The members of the committee indulged in a two hour's talk on the financial situation. It was the sense of the democratic members that the issue should not be made a political one.

Frank W. Palmer, former public printer, died of pneumonia, in Chicago yesterday, aged eighty years.

"We have no reason to believe that Ambassador Aoki's return to Japan is in any sense a recall. He has been ordered home to make an verbal report to his government and to confer with the Japanese foreign office. I don't believe that there is anything in this talk of Baron Kaneko succeeding him. I expect that Ambassador Aoki will return, and we hope that he will." This statement was made today by the Assistant Secretary of State.

President Roosevelt will give his long promised "bear hunt dinner," at the White House Erlday evening. All the members of the party who chased bears through the cane break in Louisiana and the men who hunted and camp with him in Colorado are expected.

The Comptroller of the Currency today issued a call for reports of conditions of national banks at the close of business on Tuesday December 3. There is unusual significauce in this call of the Comptroller. It will not only enable banks which have been holding currency for the purpose of making a good showing let a great wad go, but, in the view of Treasury officials, it will be the means of showing the country at large how stable their national banks are. It is no secret that banks have been hoarding money.

Utterly worn out by her experiences of the past three weeks Mrs. Annie Bradley is resting at the home of her friend, Mrs. A. B. Hayes. Her plans for the future are still uncertain. She wishes to return to Utah as soon as possible, there to begin life anew among the old friends who will understand her better than others could. She may possibly be delayed in Washington for several days, on account of the illness of her son. Montgomery, who is just recovering from a serious case of pneumonia. Already a fund has been started for Mrs. Bradley, to which is understood a number of the jurymen, whose verdict set her free, have subscribed. Most of the subscriptions received by the local papers have come anonymously. Mrs. Bradley spoke today of the late Senator Brown without emotion. It seems to be her desire to eradicate his memory. To this end she left in her cell at the District jail the picture upon which she looked daily during her year's imprisonment. "I never again want to see the picture of the man who ruined my life," she said. "It would be of no benefit to me. On the contrary, it would recall the one incident that I want to forget, if possible."

The new "double eagle" is out minus "In God We Trust." The first specimens of the new $20 coin, designed by St. Gaudens, were shown around the Treasury Department today and as soon as they get into general circulation the absence of the time worn motto will bring another storm of criticism upon the President's head.

The President will receive the members of the republican national committee at the White House on Friday afternoon.

Republican politicians anticipate lively times here before the end of the week. The republican national committee will meet on Friday and it is expected that in addition to the election of a chairman and selection of a convention, city and date, the Taft-Foraker scrap will be dragged into the arena, and the forces for and against the President will "get busy" with their bludgeons. The fact that Arthur Vorys, Taft's political manager, is in town, adds to the interest. It is whispered that Vorys may be persuaded to make some tentative overtures for peace to Foraker or Foraker's friends, in order to smooth the ground for the war minister in the Ohio campaign, but if this programme is seriously contemplated by Vorys, he is mum on the subject. The anti-Roosevelt members of the national committee will make a determined effort to oust Harry S. New from the chairmanship. New was vice chairman under Cortelyou and when the latter resigned the chairmanship soon after he became the Secretary of the Treasury, New assumed charge. At the meeting of the committee on Friday, a permanent chairman and a vice chairman will be selected. In spite of the anti-administration influences, the chances are largely in favor of New getting the best place. New is believed to be a strong Taft advocate, although he comes from Fairbanks' State.

The concensus of opinion among members of the republican national committee who have arrived, is that Kansas City will get the convention.

With many delegates in attendance, including the presidents of three great railroad systems, half a score of State representatives, two foreign ambassadors, public men and business men and capitalists, representing practically half the States of the union, the National Rivers and Harbors Congress convened today at the New Willard Hotel. Congressman Joseph E. Ransdell, president of the organization, introduced Elihu Root as the first speaker of the morning session. Ambassador Jusserand, of France, outlined the river development of his country, and Senator Newlands spoke on the various aspects of the question in this country. President Ransdell presented his annual report, detailing the progress of the movement, and what the organization hoped to achive at this session of Congress. Chairman Knapp, of the Interstate Commerce Commission, was the concluding speaker at the morning session. The session will last three days. Andrew Carnegie will be an interested auditor. James J. Hill, of the Great Northern; W. W. Finley of the Southern, and M. E. Ingalls, of the Big Four, will address the delegates on various subjects. The German Ambassador, Baron Sternberg, will disscuss Germany's system of waterways. President Roosevelt will address the congress at the White House Friday afternoon. In President Ransdell's report he commended the establishment of a government department of transportation, with a cabinet officer at its head, and an annual $50,000,000 appropriation from Congress for rivers and harbors.

Later, however, Americans rallied as the impression became general that there is no really unfavorable significance in Aoki's trip back to Japan.

Owing to circumstances surrounding the murder at MacLeay, Oregon, of a family named Casteel and the foreman of their ranch, Mort Montgomery, the police advance the theory that Montgomery, in a sudden fit of insanity, killed the others, then set fire to the house and cut his own throat. The family had about $8,000, but whether in the house or bank is not known. The bodies of Mrs. Casteel, her daughter, her son, and Montgomery were found in the ruins of their home yesterday. From the fact that a shotgun and bloodstained hatchet were found near the place it is surmised that those weapons were used in the slaughter.

Several hundred persons living in the vicinity of the five-story tenement house at 502 east Fourteenth street, New York, were badly frightened early yesterday when a bomb was exploded directly in front of the building. No one was injured, but a big show window on the ground floor was blown out, the house was shaken, and several tenents were thrown from their beds. An instant later the streets in the vicinity were filled with half-clad men, women and children. A meeting of the St. Bartholomew Society, an Italian benevolent organization, was being held on the ground floor, and members of the society said they were convinced the bomb was intended for them.

D. A. R. CLOCK.

The Baltimore City Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, yesterday formally presented to the National Daughters of the American Revolution a handsome clock for Continental Hall, the memorial hall in Washington. The presentation was made by Gov. Warfield, of Maryland, who arrived yesterday morning in a special car. The ceremony at Continental Hall was held at 3 o'clock in the presence of a distinguished assemblage. Gov. Warfield's presentation address was a graceful expression of sentiment. The response was made by the President General, Mrs. Donald McLean, who accepted the clock in the name of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

The clock, which is a beautiful work in white and gold, six feet high, with a dial four feet in diameter and a case of white enamel bears 13 stars, representing the original States, and is handsomely ornamented with the Maryland coat of arms. It faces the President General's chair in Continental Hall.

An interesting bill was introduced in the House yesterday by Mr. Flood of Virginia for good roads. A decree signed by United States District Judge Waddill was entered in the Federal Court in Norfolk yesterday directing all parties in interest to appear before him in Norfolk today to hear application for a receiver for the Jamestown Exposition Company, made by the Con. The Richmond police were notified yesterday that Mr. and Mrs. Fribourg, of Paris, France, has been robbed of $10,000 worth of jewelry while traveling on a Pullman car from New York to Wilmington, N. C., on the R., F. & P. R. R. The servants on the Pullman are under detention, and the passengers were searched, but no clue has been found. Mme. Fribourg displayed her jewels a few nights ago, while dining at a hotel in New York, and the theory of the police is that she was followed by New York crooks, who after committing the robbery, left the train. There were stolen three pearl studs, three sets of pearl earrings in golden settings, five diamonds and turquoise rings, two of them in rich clusters; an Algerian filigree bracelet case, and a pearl necklace.

CONGRESSIONAL.

Speaker Cannon announced the committee on banking and currency, practically the same as that of the last Congress, with Mr. Fowler at its head. By unanimous consent, the democrats were given an additional member, making seven in all. The new members are Theodore E. Burton, of Ohio, republican, vice Shartel, of Missouri; W. T. Crawford, of North Carolina, vice G. S. Lagare, of South Carolina, and John G. Henry, of Pennsylvania, democrats.

The House adjourned until Thursday, but the Senate adjourned till today.

After the Senate adjourned the democratic Senators held a caucus and elected Charles A. Culberson, of Texas, chairman by a unanimous vote. Robert Owen of Oklahoma, was chosen secretary, and J. B. McCreary, of Kentucky, vice chairman.

A resolution was passed by the conference authorizing the chairman of the caucus to appoint a "steering committee," whose duty it shall be to arrange for democratic appointments on Senate committees and to shape the legislative course of the minority as far as possible.

A caucus of the democratic members of the House to consider a plan for forcing the tariff question to the front during the present session has been called by Chairman Clayton for tonight.

Mr. Hay, of Virginia, will probably offer again his resolution instructing democratic members to object to all unanimous agreements on the floor of the House unless the republicans should agree to bring in a tariff bill. Representative Jones, of Virginia, also again threatens to present his resolution providing for the appointment of a steering committee to designate democratic members of committees instead of leaving the work to the minority leader.

Both resolutions will be sharply antagonized, the latter by John Sharp Williams' friends and the former by the conservatives, who feel that the adoption of the Hay resolution would be the inauguration of a filibuster which would be of widespread consequence.

TURNED STATE'S EVIDENCE.

Fred Jenkins, jointly indicted with William Seal, now on trial at Culpeper for the murder of William Smith in Rappahannock county, was called as a witness for the State yesterday and made a complete confession of his participation in the crime, charging Seal with the shooting, which, he said, he witnessed. The State by other witnesses strengthened the theory of motive by bringing out that Seal had made many threats to kill Smith, following the latter's recovery of his wife by legal process after she had been kidnapped by her father, Seal.

Jenkins testified that Seal had him to borrow Claude Norris's gun, saying he was going to kill Smith. He said that he got the gun on the evening of the killing, and that Seal tried to get him to shoot Smith, but he refused, even when Seal threated him death. Seal then took the gun from Jenkins and called Smith from his house. Jenkins testified that he saw Seal shoot and kill Smith. He then took the gun from Seal and returned it to Norris's kitchen.

The prison guard, J. A. Sweatman, testified to hearing Seal praying in his cell, asking the Lord to forgive him for what he had done. He said that Seal had tried to force the prison bars.

Smith's daughter, Mrs. Rosa Long, and Rappahannock county magistrates, George Tidler and Douglas Henry, testified that they had heard Seal threaten to kill Smith for marrying his daughter.

Today's Telegraphic News.

The War in Morocco.

Paris, Dec. 4.—The torpedo boat destroyers Sarbacane and Carabine sailed for Moroccan waters today to patrol the coast and prevent the landing of arms and ammunition for the Moorish and Algerian tribesmen in revolt against France.

General Lyautey, commander of the Gallic forces in the field against the tribesmen, dispatched 1,000 troops, including a battery of mountain artillery today from Lalla Marnia to reinforce the garrison at Ouidja, Morocco. Scouting parties have been sent out to ascertain the enemy's positions and an advance of several French columns from Algeria into Morocco will begin in a day or two.

The tribesmen are rallying in large numbers to resist the advance. Determined to crush the uprising before time is given for international complications, General Lyautey will act as speedily as possible and fierce fighting is expected before the end of the week.

"Red" Confesses.

St. Petersburg, Dec. 4.—The admitted "red," arrested yesterday charged with complicity in a plot to assassinate the Czar, blow up the imperial palace and the Douma, and loot the Imperial Bank of Russia, is reported to have made a confession today implicating several men of high family in the conspiracy. The organization committed to the enterprise is understood to have included several hundred revolutionists, though only the leaders were informed concerning the plan for immediate violence, the rank and file being depended on simply to come to the former's aid following the attacks on the Czar, his ministers, members of his family and the Douma. Many arrests are being made as quietly as possible, but the men at the very head of the conspiracy are said to have disappeared and probably to be outside the country now.

Torpedo Boat Pirate.

Nagasaki, Japan, Dec. 4.—A real torpedo boat pirate—or else some new kind of an armor clad ghost ship—seems beyond any doubt to be prowling to and fro across the sea of Japan after whatever prey fate may throw in its path. The marine outlaw or specter or whatever else it may be, is supposed to be the same craft reported to have held up a German tramp steamship on the high seas recently and demanded a supply of coal. There was nothing ghostly about this sea thief, at least. It took the coal and steamed away with it and the master of the German vessel notified the authorities of his loss in due form when he reached Nagasaki. Some one inclined to believed the boat is a myth.

Peepers Cause Panic.

Philadelphia, Dec. 4.—Fair students of the fashionable Walnut lane boarding school, Germantown, had their nerves considerably jarred late last night by a couple of "peepers." It was 10:30 o'clock and the girls were getting ready for bed when, with a shriek, one of them rushed to the window of her bedroom and pulled down the shade. The alarm was taken up, other shrieks followed, and it was shades down at all windows. Outside, on the snow-covered lawn, two bold, bad men had been detected peeping. A hurry call was sent to the Germantown police station, two specials raced to the scene, but the pair had fled.

"There will be no show tonight."

Rear-end Collision.

Baltimore, Md., Dec. 4.—Three persons, all colored, were killed, and about 25 injured, two of whom are expected to die, in a wreck on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad at Hanover station, eight miles from this city, about 8:15 a. m. Train No. 144, an express, bound from Washington to Baltimore, crashed into the rear end of No. 142, a local, also bound for Baltimore, just as the latter was pulling out of Hanover station. The two rear coaches of the local were telescope. Among the injured were several girls and boys, who were on their way to school in this city. The dead and injured were brought to Baltimore on a special train.

Catholics and Moslems Fight.

Vienna, Dec. 4.—Fifty persons have been killed and twice as many wounded, according to reports from Djakova, Albania, in a fight between the Catholic and Moslem population of the town. The Moslems are said to have begun the trouble by making a prisoner of the Catholic priest. The latter was rescued by the Christians, after a fierce fight, and, as an insult to the Mohamedans the Moslems replied by a furious attack on the Catholics as soon as they could rally their forces and all day long the battle raged in the streets. Further fighting is expected.

To Investigate Rumors.

Panama, Dec. 4.—Couriers are on their way to Jurado, on the Colombian Panama frontier, to investigate the rumors that 500 Colombian soldiers have seized the town and imprisoned the Panama authorities. Though the secretary of frontier affairs is scouting the reports it is unquestionably possible that unknown developments may have occurred there since the last mail advices to the government. Jurado is without wire communication with the rest of the world.

Advanced Prices of Meats.

Chicago, Dec. 4.—Having advanced the prices of pork tenderloins and choice cuts of beef yesterday, the packers today announced an increase in the price of chucks and cheaper portions of meat. The reasons they gave to protesting retailers were that farmers are not sending their customary supplies of stock to market. Correspondents from country districts say the farmers declare they are sendinfi all they can sell to the packers and the latter are refraining from buying.

Tokio, Dec. 4.—Little doubt is expressed in official circles here that Ambassador Aoki is coming home from Washington to stay. It is understood that he himself expressed a desire to resign, but that his retirement will not be formally announced until he arrives here. It is said Aoki's retirement means neither that his services have been unsatisfactory or that any change is contemplated in Japan's policy.

Woman Throws Bomb.

Moscow, Dec. 4.—An unknown woman threw a bomb under Gov. Gen. Herschelmann's carriage in the main street of Moscow today and was herself fatally injured by the explosion. Herschelmann himself miraculously escaped uninjured, but his carriage was blown to pieces, his coachman was badly hurt and both horses were killed.

Sheet Breaks; Girls Faint.

Washington, Pa., Dec. 4.—Aroused from sleep by the operations of burglars, the Misses Marguerite and Marie Dresnen, prominent society girls, who were in their home alone with their invalid mother, endeavored to escape at 2 o'clock yesterday morning by lowering themselves from their bedroom window with a rope made from a sheet. While both were suspended the improvised rope broke and both girls were stunned by the fall. They revived later, and in their nightclothes fled across a vacant lot to the Phi Knappa Sigma fraternity house of Washington and Jefferson College and aroused the inmates. The students gave the girls wraps, and, summoning four policemen, investigated the burglary. The robbers had fled without booty.

Fainted at Verdict.

Monte Carlo, Dec. 4.—Mrs. Vere Goold fell fainting when the prosecutor demanded today that she and her husband, a bogus British baronet, be guilotined for murdering their friend, Mrs. Emma Lewin, that they might rob her of her jewels. Goold in the dock with his wife, helped the wardens to lift her to the floor and aided in administering restoratives. Court adjourned until later in the day following the woman's recovery, when the final plea will be made in the defense. The degree of the prisoners' guilt is alone to be determined, the Goolds having confessed that they committed the crime and smuggled the body out of the country in a trunk before they were caught.

The Democrats Win.

New Haven, Dec. 4.—Complete returns from Rockville, Putnam and Willimantic, the three cities in which municipal tickets were elected Monday show democratic victories in all. In the October elections the democrats won in New Haven, Waterbury and South Norwalk, and lost the elections in Norwalk and Bridgeport, making victories for that party in six of the eight cities in which there have been elections this fall and leaving Meriden and Middletown to be fought out in lively contests in January.

The Missing Balloon.

London, Dec. 4.—The runaway French airship La Patrie has been found on a farm at Ballyballagh, Ireland, according to a Central News dispatch from Belfast. The correspondent says the machine tore up the ground for many feet until the frame work fell apart. La Partrie broke away from 200 French soldiers while being inflated Sunday and has been several times reported passing over towns in Wales and Ireland.

Prohibition in Massachusetts.

Boston, Dec. 4.—The total vote of the thirteen cities of Massachusetts where the liquor question came up at yesterday's elections shows a considerable gain for no license. Haverhill voted to go "dry" and Fitchburg, after two years of no license, went back to the liquor column, but the opposition to license in all the other cities was strong. The total vote in opposition was 37,525, as compared with 33,222 in 1906.

Burned to Death.

New York, Dec. 4.—Blinded by the thick smoke following an explosion of benzine in his printing establishment in Warren street and with his right hand caught in the machinery of a press, holding him prisoner, Charles Johnson, 90 years old was burned to death today. The body was charred and burned almost beyond recognition.

Mrs. Taft's Condition.

Millbury, Mass., Dec. 4.—The following report was given out today from the residence of Dr. C. A. Church regarding the condition of Mrs. Louisa M. Taft, mother of Secretary of War Taft: "Mrs. Taft is sinking slowly, but steadily. She is now unconscious. Her condition is hopeless."

King and Queen Leave for France.

Portsmouth, Dec. 4.—King Alfonso and Queen Victoria of Spain, with their baby, the Prince of The Asturias, sailed on the British warship Renown for La Rochelle, France, whence they will travel overland to San Sabastian, Spain.

Murderer Confesses.

Albequerque, N. M., Dec. 4.—Dabido Sanchez is today being confined in the capitol for safe keeping, following his confession to the murder of Miss Jennie Templeton, the missionary at Verlarde, N. M. last Saturday. Feeling is running high and trouble is feared if the prisoner is kept in jail. Sanchez stated that he had murdered the young woman while he was in an intoxicated condition. The woman's head was beaten to a pulp with a club after she had been criminally assaulted.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Dec. 4. 11 a. m.—The stock market declined moderately in the early trading because of weaker London cables, but after the first few minutes manipulative buying of Reading and Union Pacific started general buying all around the room. In the latter part of the hour many of the leading stocks made sharp advances and a decidedly strong tone prevailed.

Price movements in the second half of the forenoon were decidedly irregular. A new market development was made in the call money crowd where $4,000,000 was loaned at 6 per cent. before 11 a. m..

SOMETHING ROTTEN IN DENMARK.

We see by one of the Richmond papers that there is to be a movement for a much larger appropriation for public schools. In fact we understand that the "professional educators" are going to ask for $600,000.

We shall be pleased to see the schools get whatever funds may be needed that the tax payers can afford to spend. But there can be no denying that the questions confronting the tax payers in this State are complicated and serious ones. Indirectly, but very vitally, the problem of good roads is connected with the school question; and something must be done here.

Too, are we quite sure that our school system is organized upon the right basis? We have five State inspectors and examiners of schools at an expense of perhaps close to $10,000 a year and we have county superintendents, or rather division superintendents, as we are now expected to call them. And the whole business has been so elaborated &c. that the inspectors never dream of inspecting and the county superintendents have been made simply clerks to these examiners and we really have no supervision of schools—none. Under the recent system of examinations the whole thing has been more or less a farce. These hot-air tourists started out with a high standard, and an excellent one, but forthwith balked, and since then teachers have been employed without examination.

TROUBLE IN COLLEGE.

The entire sophomore class of the Medical College of Virginia in Richmond, between 50 and 60, is to be expelled for insubordination. Dr. J. Frayser Jones, adjunct professor of anatomy, precipitated the revolt by attempting to force the class to specialize anatomy. The class petitioned the faculty to request the resignation of Professor Jones. The faculty refused to take any cognizance of the petition.

Dr. Christopher Tompkins, dean of the faculty, called a mass meeting of the students to discuss the troubles of the college, but the students refused to attend.

Some of the members have offered to resign, but the faculty will not accept their resignations. Many of the students, in anticipation of their dismissal, have already made application to enter other colleges.

AN OLD VILLAGE FOUND.

Workmen on the Panama canal have uncovered the remains of a hidden village. According to a report received at the Washington offices of the canal commission, an entire village built by the French during their occupation of the isthmus and completely buried by the dense jungle growth of twenty years, has been discovered at Caimito Mulato. It contains nine sets of married quarters, 22 barracks and mess halls and a small machine shop. The buildings were fairly well preserved and are being repaired for use. The machinery was cleaned up, repaired and put in use.

Badly Mixed Up.

Abraham Brown, of Winterton, N. Y., had a very remarkable experience; he says: "Doctors got badly mixed up over me; one said heart disease; two called it kidney trouble; the fourth, blood poison, and the fifth stomach and liver trouble; but none of them helped me; so my wife advised trying Electric Bitters, which are restoring me to perfect health. One bottle did me more good than all the five doctors prescribed." Guaranteed for blood poison, weakness and all stomach, liver and kidney complaints, by all druggists, fifty cents.

DEATH OF DR. HOWARD.

Dr. Hamilton P. Howard died at his home at Bedford City Monday afternoon after an illness of only two hours from Bright's disease, from which he had been a sufferer for some time. On that morning he seemed unusually bright and well, and made his round of professional visits, first going to the Randolph-Macon Academy, of which he was a physician. About noon he became ill with nausea and was carried at once to his home, where, despite every effort of medical skill, he expired at 2 o'clock. Dr. Howard, after graduating at the University of Virginia, for two years was assistant demonstrator of anatomy there, practiced for a time in Alexandria, where he had a large circle of friends, and was physician at the Virginia Military Institute. He located in Bedford City about two years ago. He was a skillful and accomplished physician, a man of culture and high social position, and his sudden death will be a great shock to his many friends throughout the State. He is survived by his mother, Mrs. M. E. Howard, whose all in life he was. The remains were taken to Charlottesville this evening and interred in the University cemetery. The burial service was conducted by Rev. H. B. Lee.

DR. FLINN ARRIVES.

Despite the sudden fall of wintry weather last night a good congregation gathered at the Second Presbyterian Church to greet Rev. R. O. Flinn, who arrived from Atlanta at noon yesterday. The song service was led by Mr. Dailey, and the quartette rendered several selections. Dr. Flinn preached from the parable of the "Great Feast." In clear cut and telling sentences he showed how a vague idea of the blessings of salvation, such as Peter had, was not sufficient. That man must have a practical belief which leads him to accept the invitation God offers. Then the speaker turned to the church members into whose hands the invitation to the great feast is entrusted, and with simple earnestness he urged all christians to go out into the streets and lanes of the city and compel them to come in.

Tonight the song service will begin at 7:30. A special song "The Hero of the Cross," will be sung. Much interest is being manifested in the meetings by people of all the churches. Last night many of the pastors of the city were present.

FREE KINDERGARTEN.

The regular monthly meeting of the directors of the Free Kindergarten Association was held yesterday afternoon. Miss Morrison is doing good work. She has thirty-four children enrolled and has made fifty calls in the homes. As the association is greatly in need of funds, it is hoped that there will be a good attendance at the benefit concert of "Old Folks' Songs" to be held on the evening of December 10 h at Lee Camp Hall At the same place on the afternoon of that day at one o'clock a bazaar will be held in aid of the free kindergarten. There will be no charge for admission to the bazaar. Preparations are being made for an "Grange Tree" and other special attractions for children. Among contributions lately received are the following: Mrs. C. C. Smoot, Miss Cora and Miss Lula Smoot, Carter Bros., Mr. and Mrs. Brockett, Miss Ashby, Miss E. C. McKnight, Miss Constance Boush and Mrs. E R. Stabler $1 each, and Mrs. R. M. Reese $3.

ANOTHER RAILWAY STATION.

Mr. Carlin has introduced a bill in the House to compel the railroads using the new union station in Washington to erect a station just north of the Long Bridge, for the accommodation, particularly, of passengers from the South, who now have to go clear across Washington from the union station in order to reach the business section of the town. This is of especial importance to commuters residing in Alexandria and territory immediately contiguous who work in Washington. Under the act providing for the new station, it is stipulated that there shall be two stations in the city, this provision having been put in the bill to meet the conditions which have been shown to exist since the new station has come into use.

DEATH OF CAPT. HEWETT.

Captain Thomas Benton Hewett, 73 years old, died yesterday at his home in Baltimore of Bright's disease. Captain Hewett was born in Alexandria. Since 12 years of age he had been a follower of the water, and came to be the owner and captain of several bay schooners. He retired from active service three years ago. He is survived by a widow (Mrs. Mary V. Hewett), three sisters (Mrs. Clyde Hildreth, of New York; Mrs. D. Rhodes and Mrs. Ada Mason), and one brother (Mr. George Hewett). Captain Hewitt was during the greater portion of his life a resident of this city. He was a son of the late Peter Hewett, who in by-gone years was mayor of the city and conducted a bakery on north Lee street.

FUNERAL.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Mary Henderson, wife of John T. Henderson, whose death occurred Monday, took place this afternoon from the residence, 501 Cameron street. Rev. Joseph R. Sevier, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, officiated and the interment was in Union cemetery. The pallbearers here Messrs. E. C. Graham, Worth Hulfish, A. H. Thomson, G. W. Ramsay, Samuel. H. Lunt and Robt F. Knox.

The Girls' Friendly Society of Grace Church will hold a bazaar in Lee Camp Hall on Friday, Dec. 6th, at 7:30 p. m. There will be plenty of articles suitable for Christmas presents including dressed dolls, hand embroidered shirt waists, sofa pillows, etc. A "Cabbage Patch," will be enjoyed by the young people.

Railway growing out of the accident on that road last July. After hearing statements of the attorneys the cases were continued till Friday next.

Warden Candler, with Officers Knight and Ferguson, left at 9:21 o'clock this morning for Fredericksburg, to bring George Midgets, colored, to the jail in this city. The officers arrived this afternoon with their prisoner and placed him in the jail here.

The Woman's Auxiliary to R. E. Lee Camp will hold their annual oyster supper tonight and tomorrow night in Confederate Veterans' Building. Supper will be served from 6 to 10, and a delightful one awaits those who attend. There will also be a sale of home-made cakes.

Dina Moe and Dina Mite.

Mr. Cracker, a young colored gentleman of our city, had just obtained employment in one of our department stores as an experienced porter, but after a short time proved to be unfit for the position. Being fired, he thereby gained the nickname of Fire Cracker. Fire Cracker was deeply in love with a young woman of his own race by the name of Miss Moe and after a short acquaintance found that her surname was Dina. He went to Dina Moe and said:

"Dina Moe, does you lub me?"

She quickly replied, "No."

Not being disheartened and at the same time remembering the motto he learned at school, "If at first you don't succeed try, try again," he went to Dina Moe again and said:

"Dina Moe, could you learn to lub me?"

Dina this time rolled the white of her eyes and, looking Fire Cracker in the face, answered:

"Dina—Mite!"—Judge's Library.

Snapdragon Seed Pods.

The antirrhinum, or snapdragon, is one of the old fashioned garden flowers known by every one. Although it is a visitor from southern Europe, it has been here so long that it has become naturalized. When we say "lion's mouth," "frog's mouth," "calf's mouth," "rabbit's mouth," we mean snapdragon, all these names being suggested by its grotesque masklike corolla. But there is something still more grotesque if we will wait till the seed time and gather the dried, brown skeleton of the seed pod. Look at them sideways, under a bright lamplight if possible, and you will find they have quite a resemblance to a rhinoceros. Remove the calyx and the little horns on the nose and look at them from the front, and they have a still more striking resemblance to human skulls, and by turning them about you get all sorts of queer expressions on the grinning mouth.—St. Nicholas.

Hurry.

To our own age belongs the credit of having raised hurry from the degraded position of a disease to that of a commercial process. Formerly hurry simply brought people to an early grave, with nothing to show for it, whereas now it is become the means of transforming peace of mind, which is a solecism, to say the best of it, into ready money. Hurry has grown to be a great fact in life. Even the fashions take account of it until women are found doing up their hair in such a way that they may go the speed limit without fear of its coming down. And the best of hurry is that it is its own sufficient justification. Nobody expects hurry to have any particular reason behind it any more.—R. B. in New York Life.

Preposterous.

An aged Jersey farmer visiting a circus for the first time stood before the dromedary's cage, eyes popping and mouth agape at the strange beast within. The circus proper began, and the crowds left for the main show, but still the old man stood before the cage in stunned silence appraising every detail of the misshapen legs, the cloven hoofs, the pendulous upper lip and the curiously mounded back of the sleepy eyed beast. Fifteen minutes passed. Then the farmer turned away and spat disgustedly.

Not His Usual Brand.

He was a waif from the slums, having his first experience of the country. They gave him a new laid egg at breakfast as a great treat, but after one spoonful he put it quietly aside and devoted himself to the bread and butter.

"Why, Pete," exclaimed the matron in charge, "don't you like your egg?"

"No, ma'am," he replied deprecatingly. "It don't seem to have no smell nor taste."—Pearson's Weekly.

All Wrinkled.

Dolly—No, I won't wash my face. I just hate to wash my face. Grandma—Naughty, naughty! When I was a little girl I always washed my face. Dolly—Yes, an' now look at it!—Cleveland Leader.

Dissolving Mergers.

"That's right."

"You must have had a revival."

"No; we had a split."—Washington Herald.

No man knows so well where the shoe pinches as he who wears it.—Lincoln.

A Home Made Happy By Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

About two months ago our baby girl had measles which settled on her lungs and at last resulted in a severe attack of bronchitis. We had two doctors but no relief was obtained. Everybody thought she would die. I went to eight different stores to find a certain remedy which had been recommended to me and failed to get it, when one of the storekeepers insisted that I try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I did so and our baby is alive and well today.—Geo. W. Spence, Holly Springs, N. C. For sale by W. F. Creighton & Co. and Richard Gibson.

A Real Wonderland.

South Dakota, with its rich silver mines, bonanza farms, wide ranges and strange natural formations, is a veritable wonderland. At Mound City, in the home of Mrs. E. D. Clapp, a wonderful case of healing has lately occurred. Her son seemed near death with lung and throat trouble. "Exhausting coughing spells occurred every five minutes," writes Mrs. Clapp, "when I began giving Dr. King's New Discovery, the great Medicine, that saved his life and completely cured him." Guaranteed for coughs and colds, throat and lung troubles, by all druggists. 50c, and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Ely's Cream Balm has been tried and not found wanting in thousands of homes all over the country. It has won a place in the family medicine closet among the reliable household remedies, where it is kept at hand for use in treating cold in the head just as soon as some member of the household begins the preliminary sneezing or snuffling. It gives immediate relief and a day or two's treatment will put a stop to a cold which might, if not checked, become chronic and run into a bad case of catarrh.
